TONIGHT'S DRESS: FORMAL

United Nations of The Zuiderdam

Nowhere else is the term "United Nations" better served than on board a Holland America Line ship. Here on the Zuiderdam, we prove that people of many nations, religions and beliefs, can work and live together, not only adequately, but very harmoniously indeed. All the crew smiles you see are evidence of this fact! Ask any ship employee of Holland America Line what his or her fondest memory of life at sea is and they will tell you it is the joy of meeting so many diverse people. On board the ship we celebrate the national holidays of the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, the Philippines, Indonesia, India, the United States and Canada. Each celebration is different and accorded all respect. Religion also plays a large part in the lives of many ship personnel. Our staff members' beliefs include Catholic, Muslim, Hindu, Protestant and Jewish faiths, to name a few. We hope you have enjoyed exploring the rich heritage that the Zuiderdam crew has brought to you.

On Deck For The Cure

Join the Holland America Line Foundation in the fight against breast cancer. On Deck for the Cure™, a fun 5K non-competitive walk around the ship's deck, raises money for Susan G. Komen for the Cure. Join us today at 1:00pm in the Ocean Bar, 3. Register at the Front Office, Atrium, Deck 1
